

“ The essential difference between emotion and reason is that emotion leads to action, while reason leads to conclusions.” — Neurologist Donald Galne